vance to degenerate into a mere ceremony of ostentation. The less the pomp and circumstance, the more the genuine spirit of the the occasion will assert itself, and the more truly its beneficial influence will be exerted.

Commer, collector of the port of Philadelphia, Mr. Russell Errett, to the Editors of the Intelligencer:

Chief Justice Chase, as is well known, took a prominent part in organizing in 1841, the anti-slavery party, known as 1419; George Thompson & Co., tailors, 421 and Montgomery & Co's.

Birney was the candidate for the Presi. Birney was the candidate for the Presidency. There were a few men in this county (Ohio) who sympathized with the movement and desired to wote for its can didate. It was decided to have a convention to nominate an electoral ticket for the State of Virginia. A burn, then belonging to 'Squire John Gilmore was fixed upon as the place for the purpose of holdpropose the propose of holding the Specialty was public onjing onefixed to be a series of the fire is now believed to be specially well-based by the fire is now believed to be specially well-based by the fire is now believed to be specially well-based by the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be specially a special to the fire being there was general applause.

Jolly May Festival in the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be specially a special to the fire being there was general applause.

Jolly May Festival in the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be
specially a special to the fire is now believed to be specially a special to the fire being the fire is now believed to be spec sice, both at the bar and on the platform. It met with them in that barn, drafted globe cafe. Loss $$,000; no insurance; Nidth Regiment Headquarters. Loss with the committee, setting forth and defending the principles of the Patty. The address was printed in Wheeling by James E. Wharton, but his name does not appear upon the document. He was uswilling to face the indignation such does not appear upon the document. He was uswilling to face the indignation such an act would have excited. Since the day Mr. Chase has won imperishable fame. Though he may have missed the crowning object of his ambition—the fresidency—yet if this be so, there is such and containing valuable books and articles used in the Catholic Church. Loss under the committee of the patty of the presidency—yet if this be so, there is ticles used in the Catholic Church. Loss under the committee of the proper that day Mr. Chase has won imperishable fame. Though he may have missed the crowning object of his ambition—the fire such crowning object of his ambition—the treatment of the committee of the brethern and sisters were marched to the brethern and sisters w hing does him more honor than the putting does him more honor than the about $40,000.

Tupopoular truth and by rendering to Bosron, May 30—It is impossible to

The Health of Vice President Wilson.
Boston, May 30.—Vice President Wil-

Arrest of Suspected Murderer. d John Bouens on suspicion irdered the young lady,Susan

The Wheeling Intelligencer.

VOL. XXI.

Exclusively to the Intelligencer

GREAT FIRE IN BOSTON.

Louses Estimated at a Million

LIST OF THE SUFFERERS.

NEW YORK, May 30 .- A dispatch from Boston says the fire is spreading fast and there is no sign of it being checked as

Boston, May 30 .- 10 A. M .- The fire broke out in the upper part of Haley, with fearful rapidity. The wind being strong from the northwest the principal direction of the fire is now toward Harrison Avenue and Hudson St. and South west wind prevails.

WHEELING, W. VA., SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 31, 1873.

NEW YORK CITY.

New York, May 30.—Geo. McHenry has addressed a letter to the New York Stock Exchange, advising that the Bishofheim party is making strenous efforts to induce a committee of the London that the strength of the London that t ton heirs, $16,000; Washington street, to induce a committee of the London Stock Exchange to permit dealings in James Pant, $80,000; 360 owned by Erie Shares without the vise of the Far-Erie Shares without the vine of the Farmers' Loun & Trust Company, and saying that the practical effect will be to neutralize the advantage of that vise at New York; for if shares can be unloaded in London without limit, that market will weaken and will react upon New York.

TRAIN DISCHARGED. The Sheriff's Jury having declared George Francis Train to be sane, he was George Franicis Train to be sane, he was discharged from custody to-day.

Ex hiayor Hall, in the United States Circuit Court, to-day argued a demurrer taken by him against an indictment charging Geo. F. Dunning with having embezzied moneys in the Sub Treasury in this city, Mr. Hall contending the indictment was drawn under the statute of 1857 which he claimed was preceded by 1853, which he claimed was repealed by a statute of 1866. In the course of his argument he said the Sub Treasury act had been repealed by a blunder of the clerk It had been intended to repeal that part of the act which related to copyright, but of the act which related to copyright, but by an error of the clerk who drew the bill the whole act was repealed, and so passed Congress, since when the Sub Treasury should not be considered legally in existence. The Dist Attorney admitted a blunder had been made but that Attorney General Williams had decided as the intention was only to repeal the copyright clauses, the remainder of the copyright clauses, the remainder of the act was still in force. The decision is reserved. Ex-Mayor Hall says there are numbers of such cases pending but none will probably to called until next Congress meets, when the blunder can be

Geo. Francis Train, it is said, will sue the city for talse imprisonment, claiming

THE BEECHER-TILTON SCAN-

Complete Retraction by Mr. Bowen and Mr. Tilton of All the Charges ngainst Mr. Beecher.

NEW YORK, May 30 .- The custodist New York, May 30.—The custodish of the covenant entered into April 2, 1872, by Henry Ward Beecher, Theodore Tilton and Henry C. Bowen, makes that instrument public this morning, assigning as the reason therefor, the fact that Bowen has of late repeatedly declared that he had never disavowed his charges against Beecher, but that he yet insisted upon their truth. The disavowell, to which is attached the signatures of the above named persons, opens thus: the above named persons, opens thus "We three men, earnestly desiring remove all causes of offense existing be tween us, real or fancied, and to make tween us, real or lanceed, and to make christian reparation for injuries done or supposed to be done; and to efface the disturbed past; and to provide concord, good will and love for the future, do declare and covenant."

Henry C. Bowen then disavows all the charges and impustions attributed to Henry C. Bowen then disavows all the charges and imputations attributed to him, as made by him against Beecher, and declares without reserve that he knows nothing which should prevent him from extending to Beecher his most cordual friendship, confidence and Christian tellowship, regretting sincerely that he ever made any imputations, charges or innuendoes unfavorable to the Christian character of Beecher, and promising never in the future to refer to them by word or deed.

word or deed.
Theodore Tilton avows he will never Theodore Tilton avows he will never again repeat, by word of mouth or otherwise, any of the allegations, imputations or innuendoes contained in his letter to Bowen in which the latter is cited as the author of said allegations, &c., against the moral and Christian character of Beecher.

Mr. Beecher, on his part, puts the past forever out of sight and memory, and asse:

"I deeply regret the causes of suspicion, jealousy and estrangement which have come between us. It is a joy to me to have my old regard for Henry C. Bowen and Theodore Tilton restored, and happiness to me to resume the old relations of large, respect and reliance to each and love, respect and reliance to each and both of them. If I have said anything injurious to the reputation of either, or have detracted from their standing and tame as Christian gentlemen and members of my Church, I revoke it all, and heartily covenant to repair and reinstate them to the extent of my power."

The custodian of the covenant says the public can understand the brave silence which the great preacher has kept. Under a protracted aturn of stander, he had a protracted storm of slander, he had covenanted to bury the past, and to maintain peace and brotherhood. The docu-ment is given to the world to convict the principal offender against truth, public decenoy and reputation.

Ministerial Convention of the New Jerusulem Church.

CINCINNATI, May 80.—The Ministerial

CINCINNATI, May 30.—The Ministerial Convention of the New Jerusalem Church of the United States met here to-day, A fair attendance was present and there will be more arrivals to-morrow. Rev. George Field, of Toronto, Canada, in the forenoon read a paper on the form and order of public religious worship, which was discussed in the atternoon. No night

Next Wednesday the Ecclesiastical Next Wednesday the Ecclesiastical Convention and Executive Commission of the Sabbath School Association will meet. The Sabbath School Association meets on Thursday, and on Friday the General Convention of the New Jerusa-lem Church of the United States, to continne until the following Tuesday.

The Credit Mobilier Suit-Demurer

from the Defendants.

New York, May 30.—A Washington New 1986, any 30-24 washington special says the counsel for the defendants in the Credit Mobilier suit will in a few week file a demurrer, to the bill in equity, taking the ground that the act under which the bill is drawn is unconstitutionand containing valuable books and articles used in the Catholic Church. Loss about $40,000.

Boston, May 30—It is impossible to give now all the losses or even the names of all the losses by the fire to day, but it can be said that Washington street, which is direct violation of the existing laws, under which the defendants have a right can be said that Washington street, went and the content of the barometer, cool and cloudy weather and the content of the content of

DECORATION DAY. IN NEW YORK.

New York, May 30.—A beautiful sky ushered in the morning of Decoration Day, and at an early hour the Grand Marshal and assistants were at their posts at the headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic, in North Union Square. The room used by the committee was filled to overflowing with baskets of beautiful flowers.—For two hours the assisting the life flowers.—For two hours the assisting the life flowers.—For two hours the assisting flowers.—For two hours the assisting the life flowers.—For two hours the satisfactory and the life flowers.—For two hours the life flowe New York, May 30.-A beautiful sky filled to overflowing with baskets of besutiful flowers. For two hours the sasistants were busily employed in loading the drays procured for this purpose. About eight different posts of the Grand Army of the Republic began to assemble at the rendezvous in Union Equare, where had congregated an immense throng of poople. There was considerable marching and countermarching, but soon after 9

and countermarching, but soon after 9 office were closed, also the police co o'clock the different aids reported to the Flowers were strewn on the graves.

Grand Marshal that the line was formed.

Grand Marshai that the line was formed.
At half-past nine he gave orders to march.
The conspicuous features of the procession were a colored corps, forming part of the initiatory escort, and a number of boys, orphans of soldiers, accompanied by their drum corps from Union Home; also, girls belonging to the same institution. The procession was accompanied by several bands of music, and moved first through Washington and Lincoln into Union Square, which was covered with flowers and evergreens. The march was resumed down. Broadway to South flowers and evergreens. The march was resumed down Broadway to South Perry, a halt being made, however, at Frinity Church, whilst the post of Phil. Kearney decorated the grave of that distinguished soldier, the band meanwhile playing a dirge. When the procession reached Brooklyn it was joined by the Grand Army of that city; and all took cars for Cypress Hill Cemetery, where reposs the remains of four thousand soldiers, the graves of sil of whom were repose the remains of four thousand soldiers, the graves of all of whom were profusely strewn with flowers, after an address by Rev. Dr. Schenck. The side-walks of the streets through which the procession passed were crowded with spectators, and on several public and private buildings flags were at half-mast. The government offices were closed, also the banks and different exchanges, giving to down. and different exchanges, giving to down down the appearance of Sabbath. Early in the morning a detachment of marines in the morning a detachment of marines and sailors accompanied by a number of officers, left the Navy yard for Woodland cemetry, where is the grave of Admiral Farragut. The ceremonies there consisted of prayer and address, the singing of the doxologyand pronouncing the benediction, after which flowers were placed on the grave, the widow of the Admiral having according to be applied.

cears ago, and then took the cars for Sattleboro, Vermont, to lay floral tribute on the tomb of Col. Jas. Fisk.

IN CHICAGO. CHICAGO, May 30 .- Decoration Day is being more generally observed here than wer belore, all public offices are closed; the northwest, and business suspenses. The cemeteries adjacent to this city were visited at an early hour this forenoon, and all the graves of our fallen heroes beautifully decorated with flags and flowers. This afternoon the military, civil and fire departments had a grand parade, and to night the exercises will close at the tonight the exercises will close at the Academy of Music, where the oration by care of the lady managers and offlexed the flowers and the charge of the lady managers and offlexed the flowers and a hymn entitled

Toledo, May 30.—The ceremony of decorating the soldiers graves this after-noon, by various military and cicil socie-

AT NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, May 30 — Aside from the decoration of the federal graves at Chalmette Cemetery, there are about 12, of decorating the graves of the Union 600 of them, halt of which are unknown, bolders was largely attended at Cave the Brodish Johnson made a trip to and Hill Cemetary, to-day, and was accomplished. the Brodish Johnson made a trip to and from the city conveying many visitors, and especially many ladies to the burial grounds. There were two bands in attendance, the 19th infantry and Bell's custom house band. A large portion of the efficers and troops attended. At 13 o'clock there was fired a salute, and one of the gunners of the Metropolitan militia was severely injured by the premature discharge of a gun. Surgical stiention was at once sent for. Upon the arrival of the twelve o'clock boat, the unknown graves were decorated by the Grand Army of the Republic. The assembly was then called together by the Nineteenth infantry, when prayer was offer. was severely rejurted by the Premature discharge of a gun. Surgical sttention was at once sent ior. Upon the arrival of the twelve o'clock boat, the unknown graves were decorated by the Grand Army of the Republic. The assembly was then called together by the Ninearch in faintry, when prayer was offered by E. T. Brooks. J. R. G. Pitkin delivered an oration, after which the resmainder of the graves were decorated, and the ceremonies closed.

AT CLEVELAND.

The Republic marched in procession to the graves with a mounted military escapt. The serves with a mounted military escapt. The serves were decorated by the Grand Army of the Republic. The assembly was then called together by the Ninearch in the principal cities and twenty and the loss to the Company so far as known would reach fully $20,000. It was further ascertained that the ceremonies closed.

AT CLEVELAND.

The Republic marched in procession to the graves with a mounted military escapt. The serves with a mounted military escapt. The serves with a mounted military escapt. The serves were decorated by the graves with a mounted military escapt. The serves were decorated by the graves with a mounted military escapt. The serves were decorated by the graves with a mounted military escapt. The serves were decorated by the graves with a mounted military escapt. The serves with a mounted military escapt. The serves were decorated by the graves with a mounted military escapt. The serves were decorated by the graves with a mounted military escapt. The serves and other points and at San Francisco and other points and the serves with a mounted military escapt. The serves with a mounted military escapt. The serves and the graves with a mounted military escapt. The serves and the graves were decorated by the graves with a mounted military escapt. The serves and the graves were decorated by the first in the graves in the terks in their employ ha rying muskets. The oration was delivered by Colonel Granville Moody, of Cincinnati, perhaps better known as "The fighting parson of Ohio." It was full of the Grey," and was followed by Col. A. good sense, patriolism, and genuine eloquence, which elicited frequent spplause.

pendent companies from the city, num-bering about one hundred and fifty in-cluding the Barracks band. An address cluding the Barrack's band. An address was delivered by Rabbi Max Lilienthal, of the Mound street Hebrew congrega-tion. The United States Court and all the government offices except the postoffice were closed, also the police court.

AT DAYTON. DAYTON, May 30.—A very extensive and unusually interesting programme was enacted at the National Soldiers' Home to-day, in decorating the graves of decessed soldiers, numbering in all 334. Gen. G. M. Barber, of Cleveland, deliv-Gen. G. M. Barber, of Cleveland, delivered the oration. Gov. Noyes, of Ohio, delivered an address. Miss Mary Brayton, in behalfof the soldiers of the Society of Northera Ohio, presented an elegant carriage, horses and equipage complete, to be used exclusively by invalid soldiers confined in the hospital. Hon. L. B. Gunckel, member of the Board of Managerical behalf of the systems responded. gers, in behalf of the veterans responded briefly, thanking the Society for their Several members of the Monumental Society broke ground for the crection of a soldiers' monument just north of their cemetery. The soldiers' grayes at St. Henry's and Woodland cemeteries were alke decorated with imposing ceremo-nies.

AT WASHINGTON CITY. Washington, May 30-Fully 10,000 WASHINGTON, May 30—Folly 10,000 persons were on the ground at Arilington to-day. Three grand arches were creeted in the rear of the Lee mansicn, one over the right or south entrance, another over the north entrance and a third over the centre or main entrance. Each was trimmed with festons of evergreen flowers and mottoes wrought in green. A special feature of the programme of the decoration was two large pyramids representing different branches of the United that the rates of transportation are expected by the Congress. The question of the transportation was discussed at considerable length, the general idea prevailing that the rates of transportation are expected by the control of the de of prayer and address, the singing of the doxologyand pronouncing the benedic iton, after which flowers were placed on the grave, the widow of the Admiral having previously placed there a magnificent bouguet and cross of roses and immortelles. The exercises were brought to a close by the marines firing over the grave of the naval hero. A detail from the Ninth regiment decorated the graves, in the same cemetry, of two sergeants, who fell in the 12th of July riot, three years ago, and then took the cars for wrapped with evergreens. The front of and from the muzzie of can cannos aurmounting it, stringers of evergreens were twined to the ground. The monument was covered with American flags wrapped with evergreens. The front of the Lee mansion was also ornamented, the eight massive columns being trimmed with tri-colored fabrics. Above them a feston of American flags was arranged. toon of American flags was arranged while on the centre was a large shield Citicaso, May 30.—Decoration Day is being more generally observed here than ever before, all public offices are closed; as also, the board of trade and the banks. The weather, which this morning was excessively cold and disagreeable, with indications of rain, is now warm and pleasant and thousands of persons are leaving the city for the cemeteries, where public exercises are to be held.

AT DUBUQUE.

DUBUQUE, IOWA, May 30.—Decoration Day is teing generally observed. The banks, public offices and many business houses are being closed. A procession of citizens, military and civil societies, formed at this meeting, are continued for which stringers of evergreens connected with the columns. From the entrance to the amplitheatre was a line of likers for the ensuing year resulted in their selection with the grand stand and auditorium, back to the altering point, and at each tree therein a shield was placed in position. The entrance gates were also adorned with flags and evergreens. The rostrum, capable of setting generally observed. The banks, public offices and many business houses are being closed. A procession of citizens, military and civil societies, formed at this meeting, are continued for evergreens canneted with the columns. From the entrance to the amplitheatre was a line of likers for the ensuing year resulted in their selection with the current year. The election of the current year. The election with the current year. The election of the current year. The election of the current year. The election with the current year. The election of t from which stringers of evergreens con-

AT INDIANAPOLIS.

INDIANAPOLIS.

INDIANAPOLIS.

INDIANAPOLIS.

May 30.—Decoration
Day was to-day appropriately observed in this city, but not quite so extensively eas heretolore. A procession, consisting of the military and veteran soldiers, city police and citizens, marched to the Crown Hill cemetery, where, after the firing of a salute and the decoration of the graves with flowers, an appropriate address was distinguished by Rey 18 P. Reviews. salute and the decoration of the graves "Comrades in Arms," followed by an inwith flowers, an appropriate address was delivered by Rev. Dr. Bayless.

ATMILWAUKEE.

MILWAUKEE, May 30.—Decoration day was pretty generally observed throughout the northwest, and business suspended
The cemeteries; adjacent to this city were monument, proceeded to the tomb of the

monument, proceeded to the tomb of the throughout. It had been on board thirty six days. to night the exercises will close as use the charge of the lady managers and on Rev. Myron II. Reed will be delivered, and appropriate songs sung by the Philharmonic society.

AT TOLEDO.

AT TOLEDO.

AT TOLEDO.

AT TOLEDO.

The Assessment of the flavor managers and on the flavor managers an

with flowers.
The President and family took with noon, by various military and cicil societies and citizens in general. Appropriests and contribution to the decoration and A. H. McVey. Business suspended during the afternoon.

ment by the full marine band. AT LOUISVILLE.

sional rain. For lower lakes to upper Ohio valley, northeasterly winds with rising barometer, cool and cloudy weather and rain. For the middle States northeasterly winds with rising barometer, cool cloudy weather and rain. For New Eggland and Canada, northwesterly and northerly winds with rising barometer, cool cloudy weather and rain. For New Eggland and Canada, northwesterly winds, cool and partly cloudy weather and rain. For New Eggland and Canada, northwesterly winds, cool and partly cloudy weather and occasional rain. Caultonary signals may quash further precedings.

Horse Disease in the East.

Hillade, Phillade, Phillade, neace and reconciliation, fraternal and peace and reconclination, traterial and hearty co-operation in all tings calcu-lated to promote harmony, and conduce to the prosperity and glory of our coun-mon country. After the benediction by Bishop Bowman, the great crowd Bishop Bowman, the great crowd headed by the military companies, a detachment of U. S. Regulars and the Post band, formed in procession, and marched to the cemetery, where they scattered over the grounds, the blue and gray mingling freely and tenderly, and showered their floral offerings over the graves of departed heroes. Of the 14,000 craves in this complexy, not one was graves in this cemetery, not one was passed unheeded--the Federal, the Confederate and the colored soldier being alike honored.

NO. 233.

The graves in the Bellefontaine and Calvary cemeteries, five miles above the city, were also decorated, and the tombs in other cemeteries in the vicinity of the city received like attention.

National Agricultural Congress. Indianapolis, May 30-The National Agricultural Congress met this morning and after receiving the report of the Committee on Meteorology took recess until 11 o'clock to accept the hospitality of the State Board of Agriculture, who had tendered them a drive through the city. On reassembling at 11:30 A. M., some important business was transacted and the Convention was adjourned to meet at Atlanta Ga, in May 1874.

The debate was renewed upon the re-port of the Committee on Miscellaneous Subjects in regard to the resolutions touching the eight hour law passed by the Congress of the United States, and quite railroad corporations of the country; but preferring to harmonize the interests of the producer and the carrier. The subject of pomology was brought up, and delegates were appointed from the several States to attend the meeting of the American Pomological Society, to be held in the city of Boston.

General Jackson of Tennessee reports

General Jackson, of Tennessee, report General Jackson, of Tenneesee, reported a series of resolutions on the subject, which were adopted unanimously, and which embody the equitable views of almost the entire body, and evince a concilistory disposition on the part of the Convention. The standing committees appointed at this meeting, are continued for the current year. The election of officers for the enuing year resulted in

The Steamer Memphis .- The Project ed Ruce between the Lee and Natches.

NEW ORLKANS, May 30 .- The steam City of Memphis, which has been on the bar at the mouth of the river, got off a ew days ago, and went to sea, but finding

It having been repeatedly asked for in-It having been repeatedly asked for in-formation concerning the Lee and Natchez race, a reporter this morning waited upon Capt. John Janney, the agent of Capt. Leathers of the Natchez, and asked for some information relative to it. Captain Janey—No sir, the race will positively not take place at present; that is the Natchez cannot run to St. Louis is the Natchez cannot run to St. Louis with the present stage of water. There is now only 8 feet, when to do her beat,

she must have at least 15 feet under her,
Besides, at this season the river is so foggy that on her last trip she lost 8 hours,
and in a race she could not afford to lose that many seconds. So you see she will not run at present she in fact will zo not run at present; she in fact will go up to Jackson street this evening.

Reporter—Well, does Captain Dayton think the Natchez will run any time this think the Naucues will be season? Captain Janney—I do not know; but Captain Leathers is satisfied that he can beat the Lee any time, and will run if the opportunity is afforded, and there is plenty of water; though this may not be for some

Sr. Louis, May 30—Some time since the officers of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company discovered they were being systematically swindled out of passenger tickets on the coaches of their road, and at San Francisco and other points an acceptance left to the discovery, that

The Weekly Intelligencer

CURRENT NEWS, MINCELLANBOUS, LITEB ARY AND SCIENTIFIC INTELLIGENCE, AND VALUABLE READING FOR

TRUNS OF THE WEEKLY: Clabs of Ten.

Of Pineen.

Of Twenty-ave

of Twenty-ave

And an actua copy to the person getting up Olab

Postmasters are requested to act as Agents.

SPAIN.

MADRID, May 30.—The Constituent mannin, May 30—1 ne Constituent Cortes will meet to morrow.

The tax payers of Rubi, in Catalonia, have refused to pay the contribution levied on them for putting the fortifications in a state of defence. The authorities have taken energetic measures to compel the payment and threaten to expel all who refuse from their houses and wall up the doors and windows.

BAYONNE May 30 -Advices from the vicinity of Torono, represent that a great battle between the the Carlists and Republicans is on the point of taking place vall up the doors and windows.

The Russian Expedition Against

London, May 30.—A special from a correspondent with the Russian expedi-tion against Kluva says two columns of General Kaufman's command are about o meet in the Boakaw Hills. The Orenburg and Mangesplok columns have es-tablished communication.

Arrest of one of the Kansas Marder-

PARSON, Ks., May 30.—County Attorney Ward returned to-day, from Texas with the body of Nicholas Mouir, or Marion, who is supposed to have been an accomplice of the Bender family, the Kansas assassins. At Dennison he made some important confessions, and promised some important confessions, and promised to tell all he knew about the Benders' when he reached this city; between the reached this city; but when near Atoka Station, Territory, he shot himself in the head with a revolver, inflicting I wound from the effects of which he died. It seems to be certain that the Benders are now in Texas making their way to the Bio Grandering to grow he way to the Rio Grande river to cross into Mexico

South American Advices.

Lishon, May 30.—The mail steamer Garonne, from South American ports ar-Garonne, from South American ports arrived, bringing dates from Rio Janerio up to the 11th inst. A budget of the Brazilian Minister of Finance reports a surplus of $3,143,750, A revolution had broken out in Entre Rios, a province of the Argentine Republic. Lopez was at the head of the Rebels and he took possession the towns of Oseleous Victoria and tion appear to be decidedly opposed to bringing about any antagonism with the caton but subsequently met with a check at the hands of the Argentine forces; at

Excursion of Missouri Editors to Chicago, May 30.—About filty mem-pers of the Missouri Edutorial Association bers of the Alissouri Editorial Association representing mainly the country press, arrived in this city last evening, over the Chicago, Alton & St. Louis Railroad, and ware quartered at the Gault house, where preparations had been made for their entertainment. The visitors to-day, are viewing the city and enjoying themselves generally.

LATEST NEWS.

-A man named John Stevenson, from Ohio, employed on the new court house at Indianapolis, was killed Friday, by falling from the second story into the basement.

-The trial of Colonel D. M. Nelson, son of T. A. R. Nelson, late Supremo Judge of Tennessee, for killing General J. C. Lanton, of Montgomery, is in progress at Knoxville, the jury having been mpannelled there.

—Three hundred thousand dollars' worth of bonds stolen from the Waterford Bank have been returned by the thieves, who have received thereby four per cent and immunity from punishment.

-The warehouse of Peter Hill, at Car-lisle, Ind., was burned Thursday night with 15,000 bushels of grain. Loss $25,-000. Insured for $11,000.

—A Washington special says that Cresswell has exumined the postal code to see if it would admit of a free trans-mission of newspaper exchanges and of newspapers published within the county, and has come to an adverse conclusion.

Thos. J. Cartwright, Well Known Optician, Main St, Opposite Grant House,

DEALER IN Spectacles,
Telescopes,
Opera Glasses

Microscopes, Thermometers.

Hydrometers, Focket Compares, &c.

Tablo Cutlery,
Pocket Enives,
Hazors, Scissors, &c.

Fire Arms,
Single and Double Gens,
Pistois, Revolvers, &c. Ammunition, Shot, Powder, Cartridges, Placks, Belts, &c., &c

Musical Instruments, Violina Guitara, Banjos, Freuch and German Accordeons.

Flutes, Fifes,

Strings, Books,
Bows, Tuning Forks,
Trimmings, &c., &c.

Variety Goods,

Mird Cages, Walking Sticks, &c. REMEMBER NAME AND PLACE.

Thos. J. Cartwright, Optician, Main St., Opposite Grant House.

doch, trustees, $5,000; 697 to 402 to 409 indirect the young lady, Bosan of the work of the stables with the stable of the stables with the stable of the st spirit gives play and expression to the most exalted sentiments and the finest impulses human nature is capable of. It is nothing to the dead. They are beyond a dear friend is in truth uplifted by its er the cold neglect nor the tender remembrance of those left behind can touch them. It is not they but the living who are benefitted by these testimonials. The heart that is bowed down for the less of grief. There is scute anguish in reopenton St, near Boyleston and Essex Sts. The Globe Theater is destroyed. A northing from time to time the wounds that nature strives uncessingly to heal; but pain has its uses, and like those of adversity they are sweet to the gentle in spirit-Indulgence in the tender emotions, regrets for the dead, unavailing sorrow over the lost happiness that lies buried with them, leave an impress on the soul that Morse & Co.'s large furniture warehouse, 411 Washington St., and is spreading fits it better for a faithful and kindly discharge of obligations to the living. When any tie of love or personal friendship those who sacrificed themselves for a cause on which was staked the welfare of cause on which was staked the welfare of the country, we help to keep warm in these who reap the rewards of that sacrition in the vicinity of the fire are blocked with the post had a sense moving goods.

Lane. The fire departments from any sense members had better be directed to moving out, and the work was begun. The Post had a great quantity of values and of which was any of of gratitude without which public virtue could not exist. It is in this way that an observance founded upon sentiment becomes one of utility. It is in this way, as throughout the whole domain of nature that the qualities of the dead are reproduced and perpetuated in the living-that Boston says Boyleston Market was on fire but the flames were extinguished. The fire is now apparently under control.

Boston, Mass., May 30.—When discovred, the fire was in the upper floor of Haley, Morse & Co's. warehouse, and States could not be got out, and were among the workshops, and the flames are lered open and the record books and a were issuing from the roof. Piles of few other valuables were removed. A the virtues of those whose graves will be visited to-day nourish kindred virtues in light material which had been packed the hearts of those who will visit them. away, were like so much tinder; and belianks were, however, lost.

The Gore an alarm could be given, great volutions away to be the visited to-day nourish kindred virtues in light material which had been packed blanks were, however, lost.

The Gobe Theatre Company saved ever absolutely lost, so in the impalpable umes of flames were rolling up fifty feet would of spirit, every kindly, faithful, lovinto the air, and clouds of smoke were At a quarter past ten, companies I and ing emotion towards living or dead is an imperishable impulse that moves in an ever widening circle, as the wave made ever widening circle, as the wave made by the tiniest pebble cast into the sea fire worked back into the stable of George goes spreading away in all directions till it touches the shores of every runs out of Boyleston street, near Washland. It is well to have seasons for the thoughts that are bred, and for the teelings that are stirred, above the graves in and and crushed to atoms the extension of the walls of the immense edifice fell teelings that are stirred, above the graves in and and crushed to atoms the extension. of those we honor and love. It is well sive gallery of Jourdain, with all the stores not for the dead but for the surviving. Because such thoughts and feelings chas-

ten, purify and ennoble, and because pates, also destroyed, including Nos. 403, 404, 405 Washington street, the premises occupied by Rhodes, Ripley & Co., clothing merchants, J. W. Breekett, piano dealer, who were sacrificed in the struggle to George Foster, hat dealer, F. F. Libby, the responsibility of the struggle to destroyed, including Nos. 403, 404, 405 Washington street, the premises occupied by Rhodes, Ripley & Co., clothing merchants, J. W. Breekett, piano dealer, man's National Bank have not opened their vault to-day, and they have reason to believe that all their securities are to another great building, and that was of Worcestor. maintain and perpetuate the Union of the dry goods, and George F. White's milli- to believe that all their securities are States, and with it the greatness and nery. The flames have crossed Wash-prosperity of the country and the freedom ington street. Charles Kerring's splendid port of the fire, telegraphed to the surprosperity of the country and the freedom and happiness of its people, is worthy of sankte building with its immense front or all observance and of national recognition. The losservance and of national recognition and the Globe theatre are in ruins. The persons to the city. Every train inward bound was crowded with anxious business to degenerate into a mere ceremoter of the country and the freedom ington attrect. Charles kerring aspleadure providing towns, brought thousands of persons to the city. Every train inward bound was crowded with anxious business of its people, is worthy of granter to make the country and the freedom ington attrect. Charles kerring aspleadure providing towns, brought thousands of persons to the city. Every train inward bound was crowded with anxious business of the city. Every train inward bound was crowded with anxious business of the city. Every train inward bound was crowded with anxious business of the city. Every train inward bound was crowded with anxious business of the city. Every train inward bound was crowded with anxious business of the city. Every train inward bound was crowded with anxious business of the city. Beach street and Harrison avenue, and could not have been less than one hun-

the spire is a mass of flames. 11 A. M .- The rear of Chauncey street is the fire when at its height. threatened, both from the Hayward place and Essex street, and the entire square a quarter. Insured mostly in eastern and bounded by these streets, and Washing- foreign companies. on street, which is not already destroyed Simon Cameron is reported to be in is being abandoned by the occupants. Washington after the scalp of Mr. Serm Chief Durrell expresses confidence that Washington after the scalp of Mr. Settl Chief Durrell expresses confidence that the fire will be speedily stopped. The Philadelphia. Mr. Russell Errett, loss already amounts to several millions, present editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial, is said to be Mr. Cameron's candidate for the position.

Chief Durrell expresses confidence that the fire will be speedily stopped. The Boston fire creates great excitement, and large crowds are gathered about the newspaper offices where the news is builting. Are for the position. New York, May 30.—The announcedate for the position. proprietor, at No. 415 Washington street, and it fell an easy prev. The fismes were much excitement. The insurance offices the bulletin boards. Dispatches were read on 'Change, and when the news was an the Presbyterian Church, but has been

ing to 'Squire John Gilmore was fixed ponas the place for the purpose of holding it. So violently was public opinion opset to the movement that such a meeting could not have been held in any city or village in this State undisturbed. This was not only out of the way of mod violence, but adorded a short line of retreat in case of attack, over the border into Pennsylvania, where such meetings were barely tolerated under protest. These men, who were mostly farmers, and unsopainted with the details of such business sought and obtained the services of Mr. Chase, whose rare abilities had even then brought him into conspicuous noice, both at the bar and on the platform. He met with them in that barn, drafted resolutions and wrote an address to the silent state for their committee, so light; Leland, Wheelock & Co, deere in the platform of the State for their committee, sellight; Leland, Wheelock & Co, deere in the platform of the platform. He adquarters. Loss exposed in the State for their committee, so light; Leland, Wheelock & Co, deere in the platform of the met with them in that barn, drafted resolutions and wrote an address to the such that the platform of the met with them in that barn, drafted resolutions and wrote an address to the such that the platform of the met with them in that barn, drafted resolutions and wrote an address to the such platform of the met with them in that barn, drafted resolutions and wrote an address to the such platform of the met with them in that barn, drafted resolutions and wrote an address to the such platform of the met ontrol. Among the other of the met of the met of the met on the met on the met of the met of the met on the met of the for uppopular truth and by rendering to his country exalted services. These facts are known to few persons living and I send them to you as a wreath for the grave of the dead Statesman and Jurist.

W. C. S.

W. C. S. side from Avery street to Boyleston street is nearly or quite destroyed. On the other side from Haywerd place to Essex street little is left to show what existed there at 8 o'clock this morning. Benj. Cushing of the Board of Assessors estimate the total loss by fire at $1.000 000 is here suffering from overwork. His Cushing of the Board of Assessors esti-physicians order a cessation from all mate the total loss by fire at $1,000,000. The following is the list of buildings either wholly or partially destroyed, there valuation and names of owners: Washington street, west side, Nos. 389 to 385. owned by Seth Urner and W. O. Mur-doch, trustees, $2,000; 397 to 401 owned

BY TELEGRAPH. 411 owned by the Massachusetts Baptist Convertion, $35,000; 413 to 417 inclusive, owned by Gardner Bremer, $25,000; 419 o 423 owned by B. F. Hoyes, $25,000; ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT 425 to 427 owned by John J. Brann, $20, 000; 429 and 431 owned by Mary Boyles-Silsbie heirs, New Jersey, Bradlu trustee, $8,000; 363 and 864, Globe Theatre, Arhur Cheney, $50,000; 366 and 368 owned by A. Charles Baldwin, $55,000; 370 to 374 Several Squares Burned in the Business Quarter. inclusive, Arlington Hall owner H. H. Hollis Honeywell, $25,000 Boyleston St., north side, Nos. 15 and 17, owner, Francis Rupp's heirs, $11,000; 19 and 17, Jones J. Clark, $17,000; Bumstead Court Alvan Dexter's heirs, stable $15,000 Charles March, stable, $4,000; Michael Boston, May 80.-9:85 A. M.-A fire broke Hayden, dwelling, $1,000. Essex St. out a little after eight this morning and is now raging on both sides of Washingorth side, 16 to 24 inclusive, owner, Pe-leg W. Chandler, $16,000; 26 and 28, Al-lerton T. Brown, $15,000; 33 and 34 Charles Baldwin, $26,000: 36 and 38, Asa 2. Moorse, $800; 40 and 42, A. Charles Baldwin, $15,000; 46 and 48, dwelling, John Fisk's heirs, $4,000. The loss in buildings destroyed, at the Assessors valustion, foot up to $569,500, deducting 20 per cent as salvage on building materials. Actual loss on real estate, $455,600. While the fire was burning, members of E. W. Kinsley Post of the Grand Army of the Republic, were assembling at head-quarters, in the third story front of Globe Theatre building, preparatory to the ob-servance of Decoration Day. It was soon discovered that the attention of the is reserved. New York, May 30.—A dispatch from able property, much of which was saved, including valuable portraits, regalia, belts The and some books and papers. The heavy $100,000 damages. cases of books and blacks of the headquarters of the Department of Massechu etts and of the Department of the United rising. The heat was intense, and in two minutes the upper stories of the building cossion for the decoration parade at South from the front to the rear, two hundred B oston, left the line and proceeded to the

The loss of H. E. Hibbard, Professor of beneath it, and on the opposite corner of Bryant & Stratton College, is $100,000; Fayette court. The flames soon spread insured by the Central Mutual Company

Total loss estimated at one million and dred thousand persons near the scene of How the News was Received in Other Cities.

Jolly May Festival in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, May 30 -The congrega-tion of the M. E. Church, at Second and